Our privacy policy may be updated from time-to-time and you should check this page periodically for any changes.

Allodial's Website will contain personally identifiable information (name, e-mail address, or other unique identifier) only if specifically and knowingly provided by you. If you send an electronic mail (e-mail) message that includes personally-identifying information, for example, in an e-mail message containing an inquiry, we will use that information to respond to your inquiry. In addition, in some cases, it may be used to send you follow-up information about products and services in which you have expressed an interest. Remember that e-mail is not necessarily secure against interception. If your communication is very sensitive, or includes information such as your bank account, charge card, or social security number, you should send it by mail unless our Website indicates the particular site is secured.

Where our Website allows you to use services or request information electronically, we will collect the information needed to fulfill your order or request, just as though your order or request had been made on paper. That information will be secure in transit to us and once received.
